

MIKE'S VISIT

Mike loved his dad very much, but he did not get to see him much. His dad worked in an office [that/ note/ wide] was a long way from their [clean/ house/ short]. Mike's dad left for work early [hit/ in/ to] the morning. Sometimes, he left before Mike [got/ job/ each] up. Sometimes, he did not get [home/ bone/ shed] until after Mike went to bed.

Mike's [bought/ chance/ mother] saw he was unhappy because [if/ he/ go] did not get to see his [end/ sat/ dad] very much. She said, "I know [is/ to/ a] way to make you happy. You [doll/ may/ park] go to work with your dad [watch/ next/ both] week when you do not have [it/ got/ to] go to school." This made Mike [going/ trees/ happy]. He could see where his dad [always/ worked/ seeing] and what he did all day [wave/ rock/ long].

On Monday, Mike got up very [learn/ early/ plant]. He and his dad walked to [how/ swim/ the] car. His mother said, "Have a [good/ burn/ that] day at work, you two." Mike [yet/ jar/ and] his dad drove a long time [the/ to/ has] get to the city. They parked [oil/ the/ pat] car and walked to a tall building. [They/ Dish/ / Step] rode up an elevator. They [got/ are/ did] off on the top floor. His [fix/ dad/ jar] said, "My office is on this [floor/ small/ lunch]. Come this way with me."

Mike [stretch/ wonder/ walked] with his dad down the hall [if/ to/ not] his dad's office. His dad opened [the/ set/ and] door with a key. There was [in/ of/ a] desk in the room. There was [both/ also/ very] two chairs and a small table. Mike's [not/ for/ dad] said, "This is where Miss Smith [oven/ sits/ trap]. She answers the phone for me. [Run/ Yard/ She] types my letters." Then Mike and [dog/ bake/ his] dad went into another office. This [is/ do/ not] where his dad worked. There was [a/ go/ it] big desk in this room. There [hot/ was/ bug] a chair that turned around so [you/ are/ may] could look out the window. Mike [summer/ between/ looked] out the window and saw lots [it/ of/ to] cars in the street below.

Mike's [too/ dad/ sit] told him to sit on the [spell/ word/ sofa] while he worked. Mike watched his [win/ pie/ dad] work all morning. His dad called [people/ supper/ listen] on the phone and wrote letters [if/ to/ but] people. Sometimes, other people would come [walk/ into/ home] the office to talk with Mike's [or/ the/ dad]. At lunch, Mike and his dad went [to/ if/ or] a cafeteria to eat. Mike's dad [job/ let/ for] him choose whatever he wanted for [lunch/ great/ book]. Mike had macaroni and cheese and [cabin/ think/ jello].

After lunch, Mike and his dad [from/ went/ card] back to work. His dad worked [all/ had/ sit] afternoon. At five o'clock, his dad [hide/ said/ back] it was time to go home. Mike [said/ late/ good], "I am glad I got to [spend/ front/ climb] the day at your work. Now [a/ go/ I] know what you do all day. [If/ On/ I] will think about you at work [and/ lot/ bad] not miss you so much.
